*The road to yesterday
slowly winds and turns
past all the memories of days gone by;*

past laughter and joy,

fear and uncertainty,

*past striving and understanding,
lasting friendships,
learning to love,*

*and past memories
that will live*

in our minds—forever.

These memories found along the road to yesterday are what give us the strength and courage to face the highway of tomorrow.

MEMORIES

For Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, memories were disquieting dreams. They were victims of the inability to forget. Macbeth by day, in his waking moments, and Lady Macbeth by night, in her dreams and nightmares, were pursued by the undying ghost of Banquo. Macbeth cried out, "Oh, full of scorpions is my mind, sweet wife"; and Lady Macbeth wandered about in her sleep, striving in vain to wipe the blood spot from her guilty hand.

Memories for the Carey students are pleasant and inspiring. Throughout the years to come, the 1979 CRUSADER will bring you joyful recollections, memories of battles fought and won, of inspiring friendships with fellow students and with faculty.

Unlike Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, the Carey student is not striving to get rid of the ghosts of the past. Our happy experiences of sharing together this year in the Carey family will be resurrected by this book of MEMORIES many times in days to come.

J. Ralph Noonkester
President

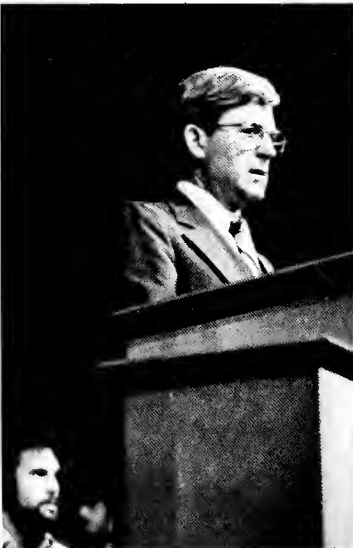

... a family man,

Memories—Memories—Memories
We will remember Dr. Noonkester as ...

a friend,

a leader,

a scholar,

and a man who walks with God.

THIS ONE'S TO YOU ...

"Today, the measure of a person's professionalism is the degree to which he helps people." "Carey's Favorite Hostess" used this quote in addressing a meeting of the Alpha Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society some ten years ago. In retrospect, however, we find this statement applying more to its author than to her audience. Her professionalism, as well as her never-ending desire to help others, exudes a quality possessed by few.

To dedicate, in its most literal sense, according to Webster, means "to devote or set apart to some work or duty." To dedicate, in its most personal sense, according to those associated with her, means thirty-two years of loyalty to William Carey College, twenty-one of which have been spent working with the Crusader. Dedication means always being there when another person needs someone to talk to, or just someone who listens. Dedication means the ability to understand as well as get the job done on time. In its biggest measure, dedication means Mrs. Evelyn McClure. This edition of the Crusader is our way of saying "thank you."

CAREY DINNER THEATRE

The William Carey College Theatre Department made some changes in its summer program, formerly called "Summer Showcase". This year it opened its fifth season under the new title of "Carey Dinner Theatre". CDT, with a new name and the largest cast ever, opened the 1978 season with a musical revue entitled Old Times New. The revue lived up to its title as the cast entertained its audience with old tunes taking a new twist, and some newer tunes with a country flair. Under the overall direction of Obra Quave, musical direction of Keith Thompson, and choreographer Madalene Daniell, Old Times New was a treat for the audience.

Old Times New

The second show of the season was a first for CDT, as it presented Cole Porter's musical comedy, Anything Goes. This was the first time CDT presented a published musical. Previously they had performed original musicals written by Carey students. The setting for the show was somewhat unusual, since the action took place on a ship and characters depicted Chinese, gangsters and many others. The musical was a big hit with the audience. One could feel the excitement rising and remaining high throughout the show. The fifth season of CDT provided another summer of fine entertainment for Hattiesburg and the surrounding areas.

Anything Goes

TALENT NIGHT '78

Talent Night '78 was held on October 10, at 8:00 p.m. in Thomas Hall Auditorium and was no exception from Talent Nights in years past. It went down in history as another enjoyable evening full of "Carey Talent". The winners were Wanda Geddie, first place, Scott Lee, second place, and Diane Evans, third place. The cash prizes were a nice surprise for the three recipients. The talent presentations ranged from vocal solos to a tap dance to a routine by the WCC Cheerleaders. Mr. Tony Pascale served as the emcee, with last year's winner, Hazel Alfred, providing special entertainment. The Talent Night was co-sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Student Government Association.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

WCC students were privileged this year as one of the most sought-after religious speakers was the guest for Religious Emphasis Week. It was observed the week of November 13-16, '78. Dr. Chester Swor spoke to students in BSU Nite-lite, chapel services, a special luncheon, and was available to students for personal conferences. All phases of REW were well attended by WCC students and faculty. The blessings received from Dr. Swor's presence will long be remembered by the students and faculty on Carey's campus.

THANKSGIVING BANQUET

The Thanksgiving banquet was a happy holiday time with a delicious dinner served by President Noonkester, other administrators, faculty, and staff to students and guests of the college. Mr. Sisson, the cafeteria manager, and the cafeteria personnel had prepared the traditional meal of turkey and dressing with all the trimmings.

A harvest of fashions was displayed by members of the Home Economics Club following the invocation and greeting by President Noonkester and Steve Perry, S.G.A. President. Philip Fortenberry provided music for the program. Suzanne Blount was the fashion commentator.

CHRISTMAS BANQUET

The 1978 "Old English Christmas" formal banquet was complete with Madrigal singers in traditional costumes, wreaths and garlands of greenery, mounted boer's head, and Christmas punch. The menu was consistant with the theme of the gala affair.

Ms. Josephine D'Arpa, director of the Madrigal singers, assisted the S.G.A. in planning and decorating for the delightful holiday event.

MISS CAREY PAGEANT

With "Moonglow" as the theme and a sparkling silver backdrop to enhance the occasion, Miss Wanda Gayle Geddie was crowned Miss Carey College for 1979. First alternate to the coveted crown was Miss Susan Clark, and second alternate was Miss Ramona Dry.

Entertainment proved to be as exciting as the pageant. The Performing Panthers of Lumberton, Miss. kept the show moving with their special musical routines. Mistress of Ceremonies, Miss Martha Waller, captured the audience's attention with her award-winning rendition of "Old Devil Moon".

The evening was a memorable one, filled with suspense, glamour, and anticipation.

FALL
PRODUCTION

The Serampore Players' fall production for 1978-79 was "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder. The play is a satiric story of the extraordinary adventures of the Antrobus family down through the ages, from the time the great wall of ice creeps over the world to the end of the war, any war. The entire play is a testament of faith in humanity.

WINTER THEATRE PRODUCTION

Christmas productions for the last several years have been designed to entertain both young and old. This year's folk and fairy tale series, adapted for the stage by Shirley Pugh, emphasized a different moral with each story. The production was directed by Charles Bosworth, a senior theatre major. Each presentation was enthusiastically accepted by the audience.

On the road or at home, William Carey College is proud of the spirit that its' players maintain. They represent the devotion and strength that is indicative of Carey. Seeing them on the court sets an example of perseverance for their viewers and supporters. The efforts of the Crusaders show everyone that the people of Carey must work together as a group if we are to face the challenges that lie ahead. For this, we are very grateful, not just for the team representing the college, but for the strengthening of purposes in all our lives.

CRUSADER BASEBALL

Webster defines baseball as "a game played with a wooden bat and hard ball by two opposing teams of nine players, each team playing alternately in the field and at bat, the players at bat having to run a course of four bases laid out in a diamond pattern in order to score." Add the emotional reaction of those in the viewing stands plus expertise on the part of the Carey players and Webster's definition becomes an exciting experience. It is not just baseball—it is baseball at its best, played by the best.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

Desire, unity, work, and enjoyment characterized the intramural football program for 1978. The M and M Raiders, Chi Beta Phi, Carey All-Stars,

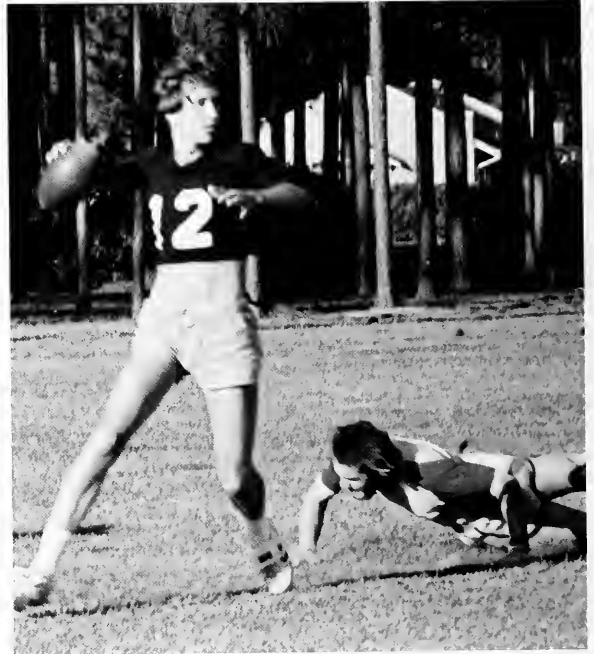

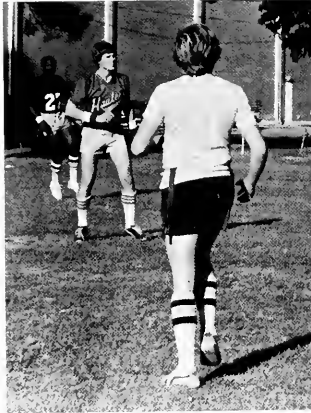

B.S.U. Saints, and Thomas Haulers gave themselves and their followers hours of fun and excitement. The sloping athletic field with its backdrop of long leaf pine trees reverberated with the sounds of cheers as the teams performed in the late fall evenings. Yes, it was a good year for football and a good intramural football season.

THE CHAMPS

Chi Beta Phi

On a cold and damp December 5th, the awesome forces of Chi Beta Phi defeated the two year intramural champs, M and M Raiders, in sudden death overtime. The game originally scheduled for November 29 and cancelled due to rain, proved to be a rather spectacular event. Though triumphant, Chi Beta Phi suffered a couple of set backs early in the game as Paul Hughes was put out by a sprained ankle, and Keith Bounds was hospitalized with a severe knee injury. With two players gone and the score 12-0 in favor of the M and M Raiders, Chi Beta Phi had their work cut out for them. Then in the last minute of the game, a close call left the score 13-13. In overtime, the M and M Raiders gained hardly a yard when they sadly relinquished the pigskin to Chi Beta Phi. Then, in a moment of confusion, a short toss was caught by Carroll Pierce, who ran the field, untouched for the winning TD.

"Hey, Coach—it won't fit!"

"I hope they don't consider the bump a foul."

"Look girls—the basketball is round, not square!"

"What do I do now, Coach?"

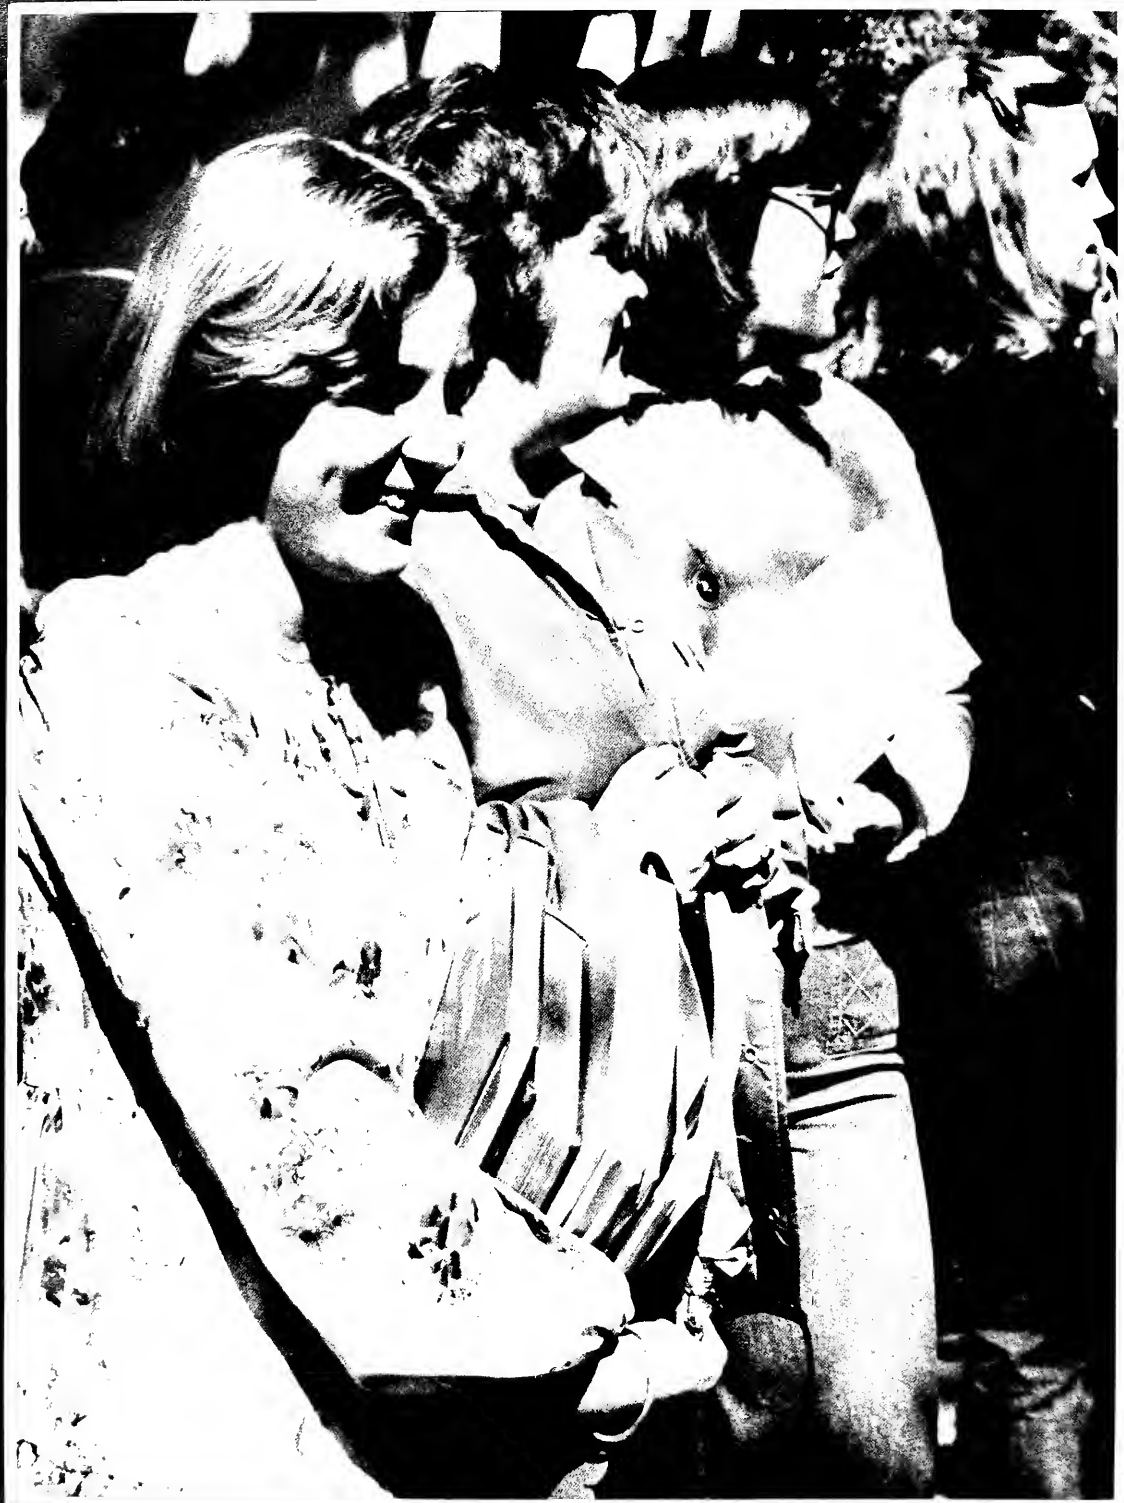

"Mama said there would be days like this."

"This is beginning to make me mad!"

"Shoot for the net, not the window."

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE WISHES TO THANK ALL SPONSORS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE 1979 CRUSADER

But today well lived
Makes every yesterday a dream
of happiness,
And every tomorrow a vision of hope."

Y

YOUNG, JERRY L.—Gulfport, MS G.C. Campus.

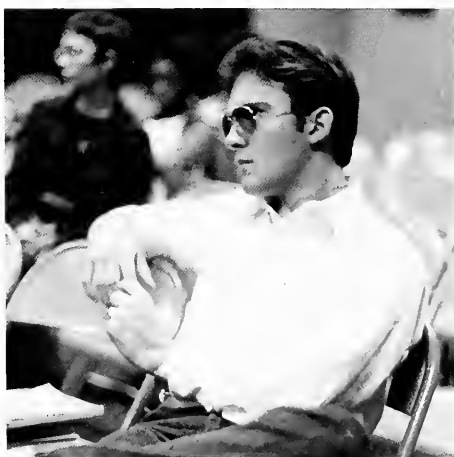

"I hope the clock isn't fast."

"Now—where did I put my pen?"

"Prospective Students."

"Next time I'll bring a cushion."

"Double your pleasure, double your fun."

"So this is where where I dropped my pickle."

"Maybe he'd talk to me if I offered him one of my french fries."

"You should have seen her when she found the caterpillar I put on her pillow."

"I need a safety pin—quick!"

"I must flap harder if I want liftoff."

"I've got a bone to pick with you."

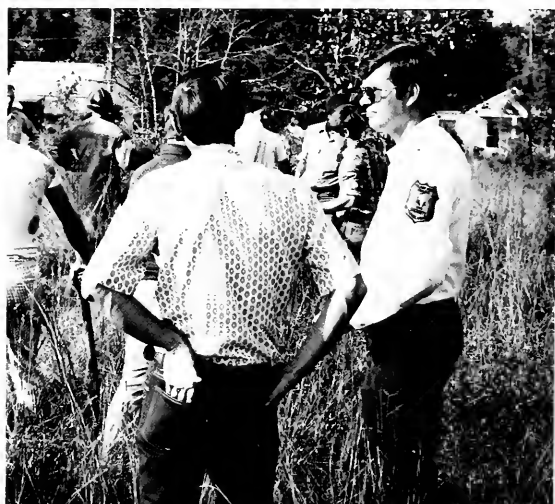

"I'll get that little drip yet."

"I'm not doing that. It looks too painful."

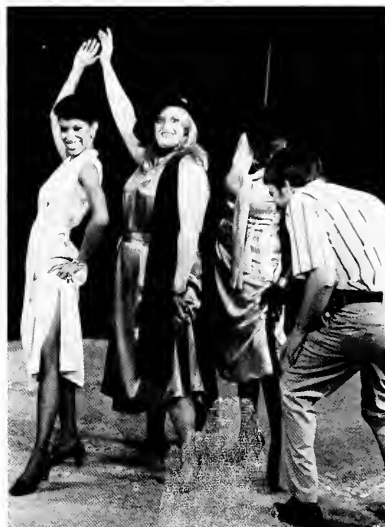

"I wonder if it's soup yet."

"Don't worry about the fire, B.J. After all, we did catch that pesty armadillo."

"Notice the creative way I do this."

"No Hazel, I said second to none, not look at your run."

"Excuse me, but she's snoring into my tape recorder."

"I think my sock has a hole in it."

"Look Ma, I'm on T.V.!"

"I tried, but they threw me off the court."

"Be sure to use the net on that end."

"We just can't seem to get it into high gear."

"Yes mam, I believe you would be welcome here. They don't discriminate against Coneheads."

"So that's the heartbreak of psoriasis."

"Now let me get this straight; the ducks count 20 points, the rabbits..."

"My old alarm clock has got to go!"

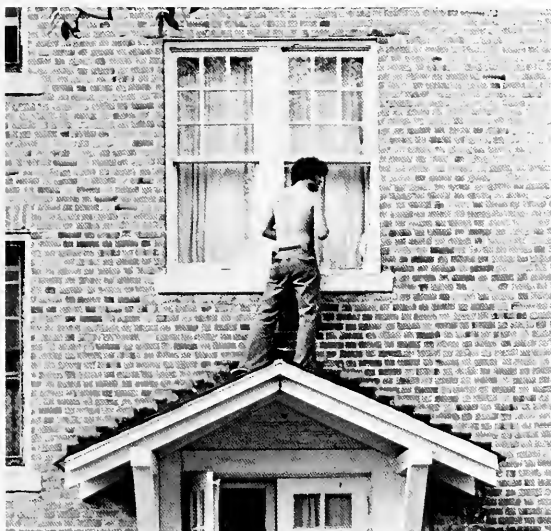

"—Down the hall and to the left."

"... 8, 9, 10. Ready or not, here I come!"

"That's funny, this doesn't taste like a love potion."

"Has anyone seen my kite?"

"I can't help it if I'm so lovable."

As you close this book, you come to the conclusion of another chapter in the "life and times of William Carey College. My staff and I have attempted to capture as many moments and events as possible. The years to come, we sincerely hope the pages of this book will bring many smiles as we reflect on our roles in this school year.

To the following people, I have a special word:

To my staff—Many thanks for all the time, effort, and imagination given so freely.

To the photographers, Jimmy McFatter, Gary Sparrow, and Bolivar Allman—Thank you for providing enough pictures to fill these pages. Without your diligence, skill, and patience, this book would never have gotten beyond my desk.

To Mrs. Evelyn McClure—Thank you for being my guide, my advisor, my critic, and my friend.

To the administration, faculty, and students—Thank you for providing the events and support needed to make this year something to really remember.

Respectfully yours,

Susan Clark
